BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Each Board member who accepts the nomination and is elected to the Board has a responsibility to promote the welfare of the Association. The Board is the governing body of the local chapter, and the Directors are expected to assist in supporting and upholding the bylaws and policies of the local chapter and Corporate.

Specifically, each Board member is responsible for the following:

- Commit to attend the eleven regularly scheduled Board meetings each year. Each Board member understands that if he/she misses three Board meetings in any year, they may be asked to resign from the Board. Board members are also expected to attend specially called Board meetings and retreats.
- Keep informed about the activities and programs of the Chapter and assist with the activities and programs.
- Attend either the Spotlight Awards Dinner or the Fall Event and a minimum of eight of the Chapter's regularly scheduled monthly meetings and a minimum of half of the member mixers and/or education meetings.
- Serve on and attend one or more of the Chapter's committees and/or task forces and during their two-year term serve as Chair or Board Liaison for one of the committees.

Board members are also expected to:

- Assist with the recruitment of principal and associate members.
- Assist the Chapter in its lobbying and public affairs' activities.
- Respond to requests for information from the Chapter or NAIOP Corporate.

Each Board member understands that if he or she does not fulfill the commitments listed above, they may be asked to resign from the Board.

Board members are encouraged to:

- Contribute to the Nevada Commercial Real Estate Political Action Committee (CREPAC)
- Contribute to the NAIOP-PAC
- Contribute to the NAIOP National Legislative Issues Fund invoiced with the membership dues renewal.
- Attend one or more NAIOP National events each year.

Adopted by the Board of Directors April 10, 2012
